

Supplemental Security Service Gist

“Saddique****” & “Imran”

When Witness G said there were good operational reasons for no investigative steps being take to identify “Saddique ****” (surname not Khan), what he meant was that operational reasons justified the decision not to investigate the intelligence strand further.

SyS accept the reason that cannot be disclosed would not have prevented the Service from combining the new gist information with information already in its possession, and from re-assessing it further.

SyS assert that, even with the benefit of hindsight, that existing information in our records when combined with the gisted information from the intelligence strand would not have led to the identification of MSK.