

The Last Will and Final Testament of Sidique Khan (Abu)

May Allah bear witness to my love for you, but Islam came to give the limits to this love. Allah says:

'Say: If your fathers, your sons, your brothers, your wives, your kindred, the wealth that you have gained, the commerce in which you fear a decline, and the dwellings in which you delight...are more dearer to you than Allah and his messenger, and striving hard and fighting in his cause, then wait until Allah brings about his decision (torment). And Allah guides not the people who are Al-Fasiqun (the rebellious disobedient to Allah).' (Quran 9:24)

My Baby

Firstly I want to begin by saying that the most difficult thing in my life was to leave you. I love you so much and will always do so. Your birth was the most exciting day of my life and I remember it like yesterday. I enjoyed every moment with you, I even gave myself back ache picking you up so much and never considered putting you down as an option. I even found changing your nappy so cool and by the way you always enjoyed it as well. I'm proud to say that I was the first to bath you, feed you ice cream, give you spending money and get you eid presents. As a father the best gift I can give you is the promise that I will intercede for you on the day of judgement and take you to paradise, if Allah (SWT) accepts me as a shaheed. So I leave you to the protection of AL RAQIB the watchful, AL MUQIT the maintainer. AL WAKIL the trustee, AR RIZZAQ the provider, DHUL JALAL WAL IKRAM lord of majesty and bounty. And I ask you to forgive me for not being a part of your life in this world. You filled my heart with love and joy for every moment that I spent with you and thought about you. I thank you for that.

To My Dear Wife

I know you will take good care of our child inshallah. You have been very patient with me even though I never told you what I was doing and often lied to you. I know you trusted me and for that I thank you. Please forgive me for the deceit, lies and my absence, it was to please Allah. Be patient and have strong Emaan, raise our well and try to understand what I did. I love you and inshallah will see you in paradise.

To My Family

You must stop committing shirk and associating partners with Allah (SWT). Make Barah from the Peers, correct your aqeedah and enter into the fold of Islam. Then if Allah (SWT) blesses me with Shahada I will be able to assist you on the day of torment.
